What are the steps to change my sex/gender marker in Travis County, Texas?

These instructions are to change your sex/gender identifier on Texas state records only. If you want to change your sex/gender identifier AND your name, there are separate instructions and forms for that. Note: These forms are intended for use in Travis County, Texas.

The Final Order to Change the Sex/Gender Identifier of an Adult is an order a judicial finding of your sex/gender. It gives notice to agencies and departments within the court's jurisdiction of the change of sex/gender identification. It does not take away any legal rights or responsibilities or debts you had under your original sex identifier. It does not grant any new rights. Changing your identifier will NOT allow you to escape civil or criminal responsibility of your creditors. You will still be held responsible for any debts you have under your original identifier.

Step 1. Fill out two forms.

Petition to Change the Sex/Gender Identifier of an Adult. This form asks the judge to order agencies to change your sex/gender identifier on official documents.

- and -

Final Order to Change the Sex /Gender Identifier of an Adult. The judge signs this form to order the agencies to change your identifier on official documents.

Where do I get the forms?

You can print forms from the Law Library's website at www.TravisCountyLawLibrary.org.

If you cannot afford to pay a filing fee, you can ask to waive it by filing a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs form. This form is also on the website.

Step 2. Gather the additional paperwork.

You will need a letter from a medical doctor.

The letter should say that:

- The doctor has examined you,
- You have received appropriate clinical treatment for transitioning, and
- Granting a change of gender/sex marker is in your best interest.

Alternatively, you can use the same medical certification letter used to change your passport. See:

<https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/passports/apply-renew-passport/change-of-sex-marker.html>

You may also need this paperwork:

- A Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs form (if you want to ask that filing fees be waived)
- A copy of your certificate of discharge (if you were convicted of a felony and served time in prison)

- A copy of your discharge from felony probation (if you successfully completed probation)
- A copy of your Sex Offender Update Form (if you are required to register as a sex offender)

Step 3. Get your fingerprints taken.

Have your fingerprints taken. You will need the fingerprint card to file with your Petition.

Where do I get my fingerprints taken?

Check with local law enforcement to learn where you can have your fingerprints taken. There is a fee, usually $10 to $20.

In Travis County, you can have your fingerprints taken at Passport Express at 1107 Rio Grande, Austin, Texas 78701.

Do you want your forms reviewed by an attorney?

- You can hire a private attorney. There are attorneys in Austin who specialize in LGBT+ legal matters.
- A Law Library Reference Attorney can review your forms at the morning case review clinic (10 a.m. to noon, weekdays, at 314 West 11th, #140).
- The University of Texas Law School holds a legal clinic each semester. The clinic volunteers will help you fill out the paperwork.

<https://law.utexas.edu/probono/projects/special-projects/trans-legal-name-gender-marker-project/>.

Step 4. File your Petition.

You can file the Petition in the District Clerk's Office, in room 302 of the civil courthouse (at 1000 Guadalupe, Austin, TX, 78701).

You should also file these attachments with your Petition:

- The fingerprint card.
- The letter from your medical doctor.
- A Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs form (if you want to ask that filing fees be waived)
- Exhibit: A copy of your certificate of discharge (if you were convicted of a felony)
- Exhibit: A copy of your discharge from felony probation (if you successfully completed probation)
- Exhibit: A copy of your Sex Offender Update Form (if you are required to register as a sex offender).

Note: You can file your Petition online www.eFileTexas.gov. If you file online:

1. Make sure you scan and upload your fingerprint card, the diagnosis letter, and the exhibits (if applicable) with your Petition.
2. Fill out and upload your proposed Final Order to Change the Sex /Gender Identifier of an Adult.
3. Include instructions in the 'Comments' section that you would like your paperwork forwarded to the court for consideration.
4. Bring the original documents with you when meet with the judge.

Step 5. Pay the Filing Fee.

You will pay a filing fee of about $300 at the District Clerk's Office.

If paying the fee will create a financial hardship for you and your family, you may file a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs form to ask the Court to waive court and filing fees.

Step 6. Learn where and when to go to court.

After you file your Petition, go to the Court Administrator's Office on the fourth floor of the courthouse. The Court Administrator's Office schedules court hearings.

If you filed your petition and proposed order online, you may get a follow-up call from the District Clerk's or the Court Administrator's offices.

Step 7. Show your papers to the judge.

When you meet with the judge, make sure you have:

- A copy of your Petition and fingerprint card
- A copy of your letter from the medical doctor;
- The Final Order to Change the Gender and sex Identifier which you filled out (except for the judge's signature)
- A copy of your order discharging probation (if you were on felony probation)
- A copy of your TDCJ discharge certificate (if you were convicted of a felony and served time in prison)
- A copy of your Sex Offender Notification Form (if you are required to register as a sex offender)
- Any other supporting documentation you might think helpful. Examples include birth certificates and passports

If you are sworn in, the judge may ask you questions. Be prepared to answer the judge's questions truthfully and briefly. Address the judge as "Your Honor."

If the judge signs the order, move on to the next step. If the judge does not sign the Order, your gender identifier will not change at that time. You may be able to return to court with additional evidence at a later date to continue your request.

Step 8. Get certified copies of the Order.

Go to the District Clerk's Office in room 103. The Clerk's Office stamps the Order signed by the judge. Ask for a certified copy of the signed and stamped Order. Pay the fee for the certified copy. You will need the certified copies to prove that the Court ordered the identifier change. You may want to get at least 3 certified copies.

Step 9. Notify.

Notify agencies of your identifier change. You may be required to show them a certified copy of your court order. Agencies to notify include the:

- Social Security Administration
- Vital Statistics (birth certificates)
- Department of Public Safety (driver's license)
- Tax Office (vehicle and voter registration)
- County Clerk's Office (property titles)
- Passport Office

Questions: Gender Marker/Sex Identifier Change

Q. Who can use these forms?

A: This form is intended for use by people who want to change the sex identifier on their public documents to match their gender identity. If you want to change your name AND gender marker only, there are separate forms for that. There are also separate forms if you want to just change your name.

Q, Can I change my gender/sex marker on public documents without going to court?

A: No. In Texas, you need a court order. Judges have discretion to either grant or deny your request.

Q: Is surgery or other medical treatment or procedure required before I can change my gender/sex marker?

A: No, surgery is not required by Texas law. What is required is a narrative statement from your medical doctor that says:

- The doctor has examined you.
- You have received appropriate treatment to transition.
- It is in your best interest (it is recommended) that your sex and/or gender marker be changed in public records to be consistent with your identity and presentation.

Alternative: You can use the same medical certification letter used to change your passport. The template for the letter is on the Department of State's website. See:

<https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/passports/apply-renew-passport/change-of-sex-marker.html>

In exercising their discretion to grant sex/gender marker changes, judges often look to the Current Standards of Care (SOC) established by the World Professional Association for Transgender Health (WPATH). For more information on these standards see <https://www.wpath.org/publications/soc>

Q: Can I change my gender/sex marker to non-binary or some other identity that is neither male or female (M or F)?

A: No. Texas law does not recognize non-binary, third gender or gender fluid as an acceptable entry for sex or gender that is printed on state identification documents.

Q: Will my identity documents automatically be updated once the court enters an order?

A: No. Getting an order is just the first step of the process of correcting your gender marker on your ID documents. You will need to contact the issuing authority for each type of ID and present a certified copy of the court order when you ask for a change. You can get a certified copy of the order signed by the judge from the District Clerk's Office, room 302.

Although the order is a binding order of a Texas district court of general jurisdiction, it is not an absolute guarantee that state entities will immediately adjust your gender marker in accordance with the order.
